THE MOTHERLESS.

Or at the stranger's hearth! Blue be the sky above their heads, And bright the sun within, O, God, protect the motherless, And keep them free from sin

HEAVEN. Oh, Heaven is nearer then mortals think, When they look with a trembling dread At the misty future that stretches on

From the silent home of the doad.

No brilliant but distant shore, Where the lovely ones who are called away

No! Heaven is near us, the mighty veil Of mortality blinds the eye, That we see not the hovering angel bands

Tis no lone isle on a distant main,

Must go to return no more.

On the shores of eternity.

Yet oft, in the hours of hely thought, To the thirsting soul is given That power to pierce through the midst of se

To the beauteous scenes of Heaven.

Then very near seem its pearly gates,

Till the soul is restless to sour away.

And sweetly its harpings fall;

And longs for the angel call. I know, when the silver cord is loosed,

When the weil is rent away,

To the realms of endless day.

The eye that shuts in a dying hour,

Will open the next in bliss;

Not long and dark shall the passage be

The welcome will sound in heavenly world, Ere the frewell is hushed in this.

We pass from the clasp of mourning friends

And those smiling faces will greet us then, Which on earth we have valued most.

THE SONG OF THE PINE.

BY R. W. EMERSON.

The wild-eyed boy who in the woods Chaunts his hymn to hill and floods. Whom the city's poisoning spleen Made not pale, or fat, or lean; Whom the rain and wind purgeth,

In whose check the rose-leaf blu

That know not fear, fatigue, or cold: I give my rafters for his boat, My killets for its boiler's throat.

And I will swim the speicht sea,

To float my child to victory; And grant to dwellers with the pine,

Dominion o'er the palm and vine. Westward I ope the forest gates,

The train along the rathway skates;

The foreland flows to it in river fast,

CDMMUNICATED.

For the Spirit of the 'Cimes.

Missouri I have made a mart,

I truch lown Spron art.

a theery; but we will see.

It leaves the land behind, like ages past,

In whose feet the lion rusheth,

iron arms and iron mould,

To the arms of the loved and lost;

God help and shield the motherless The stricken, bleeding dove—
Por whom there gushes no rich fount
'Of deep and deathless love! The saddest titles grief confers-For who so lone as they Upon whose path a mother's love Sheds not its holy ray! No gentle form above them bends To sooth the couch of pain-No voice so fond as hers, cassys To culm the feverish brain. O, other tongues may whisper love In accents soft and mild; But none so pure on earth as that A mother bears her child! Judge kindly of the motherless-A weary lot is theirs, And of the heart which gayest sceme, A load of sorrow bears. No faithful voice directs their steps, Or bids them onward press, "Aud if they gong a kennin wrang," God help the motherless! And when the sinful and the frail, The tempted and the tried, Unspotted one: shall cross thy path, O, spurn them not aside. Thou knowest not what thou hast been With trials even less-And when the lips would vent reproach Think,-they were motherless A blessing on the motherless, Where'er they dwell on earth. Within the home of childh low that we can work miracles? Suppose the Spirit did say to Paul he should gor stay-will any one pretend to the "gifts and callings" of a holy inspired

If Inceptor wishes to convey the idea that the Bible is not sufficient, or that miracles can be wrought, let us have his theory clearly defined. And, to save unnecessary controversy will Inceptor please use the word spirit in an unequivocal manner, so as to let us know whether he means the spirit of some departed human being, or some other spir-it. REUCHLIN.

Religion in Russia.

It will be seen from the address below, issued by the Patriarch of Moscow. of the Greek Church, to the soldiers, that the Czar is mentioned before the Almighty and Christianity in that pious document:

Children of the Czar, our Father, and of Russia, our mother! our brothers of pay for thom." army! the Czar, the country and Chris. "You can do tianity, against profaners of the holy powerless on this frontier. and venerated cities, which have seen the birth, the passion and the resurection pay, I will." of Christ. Now, if ever, victory, glory, benediction and eternal benediction seh, "not rag money-army bills." are due to those who give their life for Czar and their country. By faith you will gain victory." (Hebrews, ii. 13.)
You likewise, will conquer by faith. Colonel, "Give me one dollar more." We bid you farewell, with our prayers SPIRITUALISM .-- Reply to "No 2." and with the symbol of our faith. Carry to young Rivard, he said, "Take that; it Messrs Editors:- Perhaps I have Messrs Editors: - Perhaps I have speech of the Czac-Prophet David: in getting your money.' Salvation and glory is in God."soon. I supposed, (and so did your readers generally,) that "Rappings," were Psalm. 41st.

meant, but he says, "the Rappings we have never heard." Now, if Inceptor meant, but he says, "the Rappings we have never heard." Now, if Inceptor heard in diplomatic corps, and if I were not so diplomatic cor before shown result in fearful insanity earth,-Henry Ward Beecher.

-not merely stirring up an old idiosin-A SAD CASE .- The wife of R. A. Smith persons who frequent these sittings have frequently went mad. Affectionate Bradldy, who was murdered at New Hafrequently went mad. Affectionate ven by a fiend named Jennings, and wives have left their families and wan who is to be hung in July next. On deted from house to house, screaming Wednesday, Mrs. Smith visited the jail and raving. Not a month ago our to see her husband, where she found the country was shocked at the news of an murderer of her own slater in one cell, amiable lady who after returning from and in another her husband, incarcerated

O, that this could be said of the sitings. were in full possession of the country bound for a country where the ladies O, that this could be said of the strings. Were in full possession of the strings. writter a word on the subject—but, only with a large band of his warriors, visited modesty and reserve more than in bonthink of thirty cases in Ohio, and many the river Raisin. The inhabitants along nets, at least those for the ordinary of them the most dreadful ever witnessed. that river had been stripped of scarly promonade, retiring into profound depths. Has inceptor himself considered the nativer means of subsistence. Old Mr. of leghorn and lace, and sometimes ture of insanity—it is worse than death, it is altogether the worst calamity that and unable by his labor to procure a huge "ugliness."

In Parisian milliner of whom I who was on the river, some distance and it was not till I was walking down bolow, for the money. The oxen were Regent street that I was convinced as to killed, large fires built, and the forest the cause of the sensation I produced. warriors were soon feasting on their "The head and front of my offending" sun;) and then again the tempest rises, refuse to pay for the oxen I bought?" "Yes," said the Colonel, and he reiterated the reason of his refusal.

"I bought them," said the chief, "for my young men were very hungry. promised to pay for them and they shall be paid for. I have atways heard that the white nations went to war with each other, and not with peaceful individuals; that they did not rob and plunder poor people. I will not."
"Well," said the Colonel, "I will not

"You can do as you please," said the tianity call upon you. The prayers of the fifth but before Tecumseh and his war- the church and the country accompany riors came to fight the battles of the and shook my heart like a tempest, as I in extent, around it) of Caps di Monte;

Providence that you are to see the enemy in the Colonel's mind. The defection in front of you, recollect, then, that you of the great chief, he well knew, would are fighting for the most pious of Czars, immediately withdraw all the nations

"Well," said the Colonel, if I must

"Give me hard money," said Tecum-The Colonel then counted out a buntheir faith in God, for their faith to their dred dollars in coin, and gave them to

"Only Poor Children." Here is a primary school; what a waters and the mountains, the firmament the other, so that each little face is disand armies of cloud, are insignificant tinctly visible. What a pretty sight! The seem here, that city of the dead has many intelligent persons are of opinion 1850. a theory; but we will see.

I am not conscious of appealing to the "grosser attributes in a spirit of irony and ridicule," unless it is in something and ridicule," unless it is in something and that there is indeed something and that there is indeed something and that there is indeed something in space and moving in stars, wheeling in space and moving in a artist. See his broad ample fore and armies of cloud, are insignificant tinetly visible. What a pretty sight!

and how nature loves to compensate! down deepened, and the long night clossinitered me the most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the Holl. There's a boy, now, in that ragged jacket, who is a study for an artist. See his broad ample forestars, wheeling in space and moving in a artist. See his broad ample forethe "grosser attributes in a spirit of irony sending beauty to the Hovel—deformity to the Holl. There's a boy, now, in that ragged jacket, who is a study for an artist. See his broad ample forethe "grosser attributes in a spirit of irony sending beauty to the House most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the the most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the Holl. There's a boy, now, in that ragged jacket, who is a study for an artist. See his broad ample foreand ridicule," unless it is in something to the total city of the dead has interested me the most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the House nearly up to the first story, in the transfer of the most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the House nearly up to the first story, in the transfer of the down deepened, and the long night closinterested me the most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the House nearly up to the first story, in the transfer of points of the down deepened, and the long night closinterested me the most. About onethird of the original city, including some to the transfer of points of the transfer of points of the most. Abo thing in that really ridiculous, I have no silence along theirappointed ways upon head; mark how his dark eyes glow; on that rude slab, in that dismal and (in ruins doubtless, but showing clearly thing in that really ridiculous, I have no ideany the content of the dop't believe in the final salvation of all men, and don't run his theory into Universalism, Unitarianism, estionsm, or some other semi-infield ism, then I have guessed wrong. But the will say I have no right to guess. I have no right to guess have not read that little girl at his side, whose simple cattent have was struck most that fixed pain fully old church. I was struck most wather have structly structured states of the streats, the site was the very stepping stones, are site was the very stepping stones, are sit have very stepping stones, are sit have very stepping stones, are sit have very stepping streat, and that little girl at his side, whose in full with the miscrate, was stepping streat, and that little girl answer that when we see these states of the state of the shuttle darts, or comes the teacher, brisk, angular and the ball from the unconscious bat, or the sharp-voiced. Heaven pity the children of a human clasping a child; two of a man where he willed to lie, by his faithful woman, who seemed to have died in each other's arms; one of a man with the feet still fastened in the stocks.—

A Remantic Affair.

same reason that the shuttle darts, or comes the teacher, brisk, angular and shups; one of a sharp-voiced. Heaven pity the children would it been to have laid him woman clasping a child; two of a man who seemed to have died in each other's arms; one of a man with the feet still fastened in the stocks.—

A Remantic Affair.

same reason that the shuttle darts, or comes the teacher, brisk, angular and shups; one of a man would it been to have laid him woman clasping a child; two of a man would be the seemed to have died in each other's arms; one of a man with the feet still fastened in the stocks.—

A Remantic Affair.

A Remantic Affair. say he is seeking truth—and surely he will allow me to say that I am seeking duty and safety. We are commanded to "warn every man," as well as teach. I acknowledge that my object in writing is but their cradle, and these elements is not so much to discuss a theory, as to give warning of tendencies which I have give warning of tendencies which I have he for shown result in fearful insanity earth,—Henry Ward Beecher.

a nature on which all eternity may work without fully developing it. The inthe feet still fastened in the stocks.—

A spanish boy, named Joseph Edward the feet still fastened in the stocks.—

The visitation must have been awfully and safety. It is said that about ten years ago, while bathing on the coast near the bathing place of the Roman patricians, famal for its luxury and magnificence.

I have also been to Bais, the favorite bathing place of the Roman patricians, famal for its luxury and magnificence.

Can she see no genius written on your city of Campaschy Marico he mith for the favorite patricians, famal for its luxury and magnificence. Can she see no genius written on you city of Campeachy, Mexico, he, with five famed for its luxury and the dissolute broad forehead? No poetry slumber-other boys were stolen by a gang of character of its inhabitants. In its vi--not merely stirring up an old idiosincracy, as in the cases he mentioned but sending the strong mind recling from its throne. Inceptor will not deny that throne other throne are the bills where are the bills promoted to the dignity of toe-nail polithem to the city of New Orleans, and is some one of the promoted to the dignity of toe-nail polithem to the city of New Orleans, and there sold them to a Louisiana planter for the term of their minority. Their owner was about to resell him to a shipting in a feel to the city of New Orleans, and there are the hills where grew the Falernian wine. There is Virgil's will and taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friend tantalized to the Sybil's grotto, and I know not how much more.—[State Democrat.]

The very attempt of a feel to see the Elyrian fields; there are the hills where grew family had taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friend tantalized to the Sybil's grotto, and I know not how much more.—[State Democrat.]

The very attempt of a feel to see the Elyrian fields; there are the hills where grew family had taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friend tantalized to the Sybil's grotto, and I know not how much more.—[State Democrat.]

The very attempt of a feel to see the Elyrian fields; there are the hills where grew family had taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friend tantalized to the Sybil's grotto, and I know not how much more.—[State Democrat.] it is-Hope she likes it as well as I do! the boy Pobslo made his escape, and A private letter received in this city -[Fanny Fern.

relate to the subject. Since the days of the Apostles, I depy any revelation, either by saint or philosopher, angel or devil. Let me caution Inceptor and his friends how they proceed in this matter; would it not be well for them at their next siting to open the bible and read Rev xxii-18-19.

As to the quotation from the scribes and Pharisees, I can't see how that applies to the subject—that only shows what they thought—Nobody doubts that the Phariseos believed in spirits and angels. And if a spirit or angel Add spoken to Paul as the Pharisees subject. The recurse he was an apposed, does that prove that spirits or angels speak to anybody in Iroaton.

Real accordance was an accordance of the continents of flesh. Young R vard took the order to was my unfortunate bonnet. It was and the waves, with loud and ceaseless than poetry in it.

Col Elliott, who promptly refused to pay stared at and commented upon without murmur, break in long lines of foam on You are too much Col Elliott, who promptly refused to pay it."

The young man with a sorrowful heart returned with the naswer to Tecumseh, who said, "He won't pay it will he?— Stay all night, and to morrow we will go and see.

On the next morning he took young Rivard and went down to see the Colonel. On meeting him he said, "Do you nel. On meeting him he said, "Do you are too much apprehensive about the shore. In all its aspects, of storm or of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, of calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, or calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, or calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, or calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, or calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, or calm, or (more like this life of ours,) of checkered shadow and sundant ours, or calm, or cal purchased a black lace veil, with the sea only by a low parapet wall; and which I quite extinguished my "stunner," this is my favorite walk. Half the trees

Europe, of course, paid a visit to New ments here have no fire places. They stend Abbey, in England, the well-known residence of Lord Byron. In speaking of the event she beautiully and some little idea of the city of Naples, touchingly allules to the love of the poet for Mary Chaworth:

ingly regretful, were the thoughts which castle-like residence is the royal palace. the church and the country accompany you. Russia is again provoked by an enemy who was vanquished under Cathorically, under Alexander 1, and under Nicholas 1. Already have your brothers revived the old habit of besting them by land and by sea. If it be decreed by the church and the country accompany you. Russia is again provoked by an enemy who was vanquished under Cathorical the battles of the great King, they had enough to eat, for surious of silent thought, it may be of lonely wretchedness. • • • I never before so deeply felt how passing and only love. That Mary Chaworth and only love and study love. The city and Verence the views of the cit returned the passion of her young poet population is better prepared for) a lib. bugbears by which simple patients are row money, and study law. lover, I have not a doubt; but, like the eral constitutional monarchy, what a scared into their graves. Believe the Montagues and Capulets, the Houses of happy country it might be! The peo- general sense of the mercantile world, work to find meat for his atomach; a for your dear country, for the holy of Red men from the British service, church, against the persecuters of Chris- and without them they were nearly by ad not the strength and truth of Juliet, and so they were parted—a separhave an endless fund of good-nature; not the limbs, that tain:s by long sitting.
ation by far more piteous for her, and they are light-hearted, excitable, quick Think of the patience of tailors—think more fatal to him then death smid the in all their emotions, careless of the how long Lord Chancellor sits-think full summer brightness of happy love. morrow, to a marvellous degree; patient of the brooding hen. This, not Shakspeare's, was the true under suffering; and (unlike some of the soul tragedy. Might she not have redeemed even his wayward and erring seen a man even partially intoxicated and erring nature, by the divinity of a pure love since I have been in this city—of some ters, in Gwinnet county, Georgia. It Colonel, "Give me one dollar more."

It was given; and handing that also to young Riverd, he said, "Take that; it we bid you farewell, with our prayers and with the symbol of our faith. Carry with you and recollect the warlike speech of the Czar-Prophet David: speech of the Czar-Prophet Da words which have linked her name in temperance lecturer in it.

I have been received here with the and died in broken heartedness, at last, and died in broken heartedness are died by the d worked his way to Lafayette, Indiana, from Gov. Wood, says that he will rea case might be found (where the natural tendencies were strong) in which real tendencies were strong) in which realigious exercises were followed by described b ders:

Naples, December 21, 1853. Thinking you will take an interest in hearing what I think of this colestial land of song, and how I am situated

The annexed sketch will give you (Napoli, as its inhabitants call it.) The point of view is between Vesuvius and "Strangely sorrowful, almost agoniz. the city. On the extreme right, the smisble lady who efter returning from one of these sittings, leaped from a section of the sectio

The Gold Fields of the World.

it is altogether the worst calamity that can wrist man in the flesh. Incepter talks very eloquently, and almost religiously, about the developement of mind, fee, che, but methinks one ghost of the sight of the sort by glance from behind the gratel window—one fearful glance from the blood site of the sort of the sort by glance from the blood site of the sort of the ing advice. There is much more truth erted would be sufficient to jostle the

this is my favorite walk. Half the trees best way in these cases is to keep yourare still in leaf; and the grass is as fresh and green as with us in April. A literary last the world was beford Galen—of the country in one year, would make a A Beautiful Apostrophe to the Memtle fire morning and evening, is needed; entire inner construction of the animal worm fence round the Distict of Columnary of Byron.

The fire morning and evening, is needed; entire inner construction of the animal worm fence round the Distict of Columnary of the Neapolitans scarcely use it man; not to be conscious of a midriff; bia, six feet high; and the sir expelled Beautiful Apostrophe to the memory of Byron.

Grace Greenwood, in her late visit to at all. Indeed, many of the best apartments here have no fire places. They whereabouts the gall grows; to account over to do the wind-work of all the patwhim of Harvey's; to acknowledge no mechanism not visible. For, once fix the seat of your disorder and your fancies flux into it like so many bad humors. Those medical gentry choose each his favorite part—one takes the lungs: another the aforesaid liver, and refers to been opned on lands of Thomas J. Wa. Hymen, should bear in mind- wife

The Pope and Spiritualists.

supplicate, you my dear friend, to say for lecturing in Great Britain, and it is everywhere, so far as you can, that the

A Fatalist. A Western newspaper publishes the following: I knew an old man who believed that in Missouri, and he was one day going thing is the main point.

"Yes," said the old fellow, "suppose esteem. This will always a was to meet an Indian, and his time suspicious of a superior.

Mr. Levi Swain, of Meredith, N. H. sant his own employees of has worked forty-seven years at the carpenter business, and has never cut himself with an edged tool, and never has You cament find a fit actually

The Gold Fields of the World.

Gold abounds, to a greater or less extent, in almost every country. It has been found in small quentities in Spain, Portugal, Sweden, the Germanic States, Turkey, and even in England. The produce of the Russian gold mines is from fitteen to twenty millions of dollars annually. Besides Australis, gold is found in Hindosten, China, Malacca, Japan, Borneo, New Guinea, and New Zealand.—It has also been discovered in considerable quantities in and about the Chaudiere river, in Lower Canada.

Speculative Philosophy.

If all mankind could wink at the o his friend Barton gives him the follow same moment, the muscular effort exearth out of its orb't.

You are too much apprehensive about If all the ouths uttered in the United

Franklin says, "A poor man met When an extravagant friend wishes to borrow money, consider which of the two you had rather lose:

What energy is to a man, pride is to a woman -- a proud girl will never be-

A western paper speaking of a man who died in the most abject poverty and neglect, said that "he died without the aid of a physician." It is said that North Carolina pre-planted by the finger of god in we-

Jesus. Modern law may be divided linto three parts—supposition, proof, and de-nial. Suppositon is nothing; proof to what was to be, would be." He lived next to impossible; and to deny every-suspicious of a superior. Your generalities will vex him as so